Dizzie Z

Dave: My next guest has been making a name for herself with the all-female rap collective Laydeez. Give a big hand for Dizzie Z! Welcome to the show, Dizzie!

Dizzie: Thanks, Dave!

Dave: First off, I hear you've just got back from a tour of Japan, right? How was it?

Dizzie: Awesome! You know they say that the Japanese are, like, well, really quiet an' all that? Baloney! We played some really great concerts and audiences were, like, really wild! Seriously, we had a great time! It was a blast!

Dave: Cool! Did you get them dancing on the stage and all that stuff?

Dizzie: We sure did! They really got into it, you know. I'm tellin' ya, those Japanese kids are crazy!

Dave: How about the new album? Can't wait to hear it!

Dizzie: Thanks! Don't worry, people! My ladies are on the job and it should be out in the stores in a couple of months. I'm just so excited about the work we're doing now! It'll be our best yet, ain't no doubt!

Dave: What about Miss D? I heard she's thinking of quitting the band.

Dizzie: Yeah, well, that girl's got some issues. 'Nuff said. We'll be strong, with or without her.

Dave: Oh, right. Let's leave that, then. What's all this about you having a book?

Dizzie: I'm getting some poems and other stuff I wrote put in a book. I don't know right now when it's gonna be in the stores, but watch this space!

Dave: What about the old love life? There's been talk of you and Jason Brown getting together.

Dizzie: Me and Jason? Where did you get that from? You've got spies everywhere, haven't you? Come on, admit it, man! Nah, me and Jase, we're just buddies. He's a great guy and we have a lot of laughs together, but there's nothing more than that. Sorry to disappoint you, but that's how it goes. It's just me right now and I'm fine with that.

Dave: Okay, okay, I believe you! When are you and your crew gonna be doing some concerts over here?

Dizzie: We'll be here sometime at the end of the year, but we haven't sorted out the details yet. You'll be the first to know, I promise!

Dave: Thanks! Just get me a front seat, alright?

Dizzie: Done!

Dave: Okay, Dizzie, thanks for coming along!

Dizzie: My pleasure!

Dave: Boys and girls, let's big it up for Dizzie Z! Respect!

Help For Alcoholics

-If an alcoholic is unwilling to get help, what can you do about it?

Alcoholics don't respond very well to advice, suggestions or threats. 1. ____ You must realize that an alcoholic is desperate to get more and more alcohol. Moreover, he or she may lie, cheat and steal in order to do so. Very simply, an alcoholic is a person whose life is controlled by alcohol. They are sick.

-If an alcoholic is sick, why doesn't he or she just go to the hospital?

Because in the early stages of alcoholism, an alcoholic does not appear sick, in pain or visibly abnormal. Alcoholics do not comprehend that they are about to become a very sick person and neither do the people around them.

10 ____ By the time an alcoholic is in the late stage, he or she is often irrational, deluded and unable to understand what has happened. 2. ____

Being an alcoholic is not a curse. An alcoholic is a sick person and should be treated as one. Alcoholics are born with a genetic predisposition to addiction that is to do with brain chemistry. Of course, alcoholics need to ingest alcohol before the addiction takes hold. Alcoholism is a progressive disease: it only gets worse if it is not treated.

-If an alcoholic is unwilling to seek help, is there any way to get them into treatment?

Sure, the courts force alcoholics into treatment all the time. Rehab centers are overflowing with people who don't want to be there. 3. ____ A perfect example is the alcoholic with multiple DUI arrests. These folks have all been through one or more alcohol treatment programs. Why 20 ____ didn't any of them work? The answer is that the alcoholic refused to admit to themselves that they had a problem.

No alcoholic is hopeless. If you're trying to get an alcoholic sober, learn to accept the fact that they are sick: they have an illness that neither they nor you can control. 4. ____

www.maturazangielskiego.net

The first step in treating an alcoholic is the detoxification stage. The alcoholic must truly want to stop drinking or detoxification just becomes a temporary solution. The biggest problem to overcome for an alcoholic is their denial that they have a drinking problem. An alcoholic is someone who could be helped but who is only worth helping if they decide not to drink.

Once an alcoholic is in treatment, they will more than likely be asked to start attending Alcoholics Anonymous (AA) meetings, usually on a daily basis. It is not easy to know when or if an alcoholic is ready for AA. 5. ____ People bounce in and out of AA all the time. 30 ____

The success of an alcohol recovery program depends on the severity and nature of the person's alcoholism. Most of all, it depends on the alcoholic's personal level of commitment and motivation. Going to treatment is a big hurdle for them to jump.

Many of these hurdles are self imposed, yet to alcoholics they seem as difficult to get over as fortified brick walls are. These walls are constructed from fear, shame, embarrassment and denial. The uncertainty of what they must face is enough to trigger enough stress to stop them going.

It may never be completely understood what causes alcoholism and AA is only one of many recognized treatments for alcoholism. 6. ____ More than 700,000 Americans receive treatment for alcoholism of one kind or another on any given day. Alcoholics Anonymous (AA) is one of the best treatment options for a recovering alcoholic. (...) 40 ____

If you don't like the first meeting you attend, go to a different one. 7. ____ Eventually you will find a meeting you like with people who care and are willing to help you through the recovery process.

Adapted from Kevin O'Leary, www.articlecity.com

- A. The alcoholic is addicted and an addict cannot stop just by choosing to stop.
- B. You can't make the decision for them.
- C. The alcoholic is simply not aware of what is going on in his or her body and is in a complete state of denial.
- D. One would imagine that, under these circumstances, an alcoholic is doomed to oblivion.
- E. The difference is its track record of success.
- F. Will forcing an alcoholic into treatment guarantee recovery? No.
- G. It's not as if they're difficult to find.

A friend got a call from VISA this week and Mastercard rang me on Thursday. It went like this: the person calling said “This is Carl Patterson and I’m calling from the Security and Fraud Department at VISA. My badge number is 2460. Your card has been flagged for an unusual purchase pattern, and I’m calling to verify. Did you purchase an item for 497 pounds 99 pence from a marketing company based in Ipswich?”

When you say 'No', the caller continues with “Then we will be issuing a credit to your account. This is a company we have been watching for some time: they have been falsely 1._____ a lot of people between 297 and 497 <sup>10</sup>_____ pounds. Most cards are flagged for purchases worth over 500 pounds. The credit will be sent to you at (they give you your address) before your next statement is sent out. Is the address correct?”

You say, “Yes”. The caller continues with this: “I will be starting a fraud investigation. If you have any questions, you should call the 0800 number given on your card and ask for the Security Department. You will need to 2._____ this control number”. They then give you a 6-digit number. After that, the caller says that he “needs to verify that you are in possession of your card” (this is where the scam takes place as up 3._____ they have requested nothing!). They then ask you to turn your card over. There are seven numbers; <sup>20</sup>_____ the first four are 1234 (or whatever - in any case, they already have these numbers). The next 3 are the security numbers that verify that you are in possession of the card (these are the numbers they are really 4._____, as these are the numbers you use when making Internet purchases to prove you have the card). “Read me the 3 numbers”. When you do, he says “That is correct. I just needed to verify that the card has not been lost or stolen and that you still have your card. Do you have any other questions? Don’t 5._____ to call back if you do”.

You actually say very little and they never ask for or tell you the card number. But after we were called on Wednesday, we telephoned VISA within 20 minutes to ask a question. Are we glad we did! The REAL VISA security department <sup>30</sup>_____ told us it was a scam and in the last 15 minutes a new 6._____ 497.99 pounds HAD BEEN put on our card!

We made a real fraud report and closed the VISA card. They are issuing us with a new number.

THE REAL VISA/MASTERCARD DEPARTMENT STRESSED THAT THEY WOULD NEVER ASK ANYTHING ABOUT THE CARD 7._____ THEY ALREADY KNOW EVERYTHING ABOUT IT!
